

Jamell Meeks

Reaching, Teaching, Empowering and Mentoring

Jamell Meeks is the Director of Women's Ministries for the Salem Baptist Church of Chicago, under the leadership of her husband, Reverend James T. Meeks. WOI serves over 4,000 women.

She serves as National Chair for First Ladies Health Initiative and leader of a national pastor's wives prayer group. She has been featured in several national publications for her work with entrepreneurship, women, and health. Jamell, is a certified John Maxwell speaker and spoke to hundreds of women. She developed the nationally recognized A.R.I.S.E Entrepreneur Program in 2004 and has helped over 1100 people start and increase their small businesses.

Her mission is to inspire women of all ages to live a life grounded by faith, guided by purpose, and motivated by infinite possibilities.

She resides in Chicago, with her husband and is the mother of four children and proud grandmother of five.